By Mail - - - - - $10.00 per year

OFFICE:
No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's fall goods.
The schools opened with goodly numbers yesterday.

The paving and sewerage gangs are again at work on Broadway.
Charles D. Harmon yesterday received his "show" drills for the fair.

J. W. Kleeb & Co. were yesterday unloading their third car of buggies.

The store lately vacated by Michaels Bros. is being fitted up as a boot and shoe store.

McClurg's cracker factory team took a little run yesterday, but were held up before any serious damage was done.

Officer Bates yesterday gathered in, by the aid of an express wagon, an old man whom he found fearfully drunk on Bancroft street.

The city clerk reports as the receipts of his office for August, $3,636, of which $3,308 was from licenses and $310 from city criminal cases.

The Western Iowa College opened yesterday its full term with an addition of fifteen new pupils and others coming in. Prof. Paulson is naturally much encouraged by the outlook.

Ernest E. Hart and Horace E. Evans have bought out the real estate and loan business of S. W. Ferguson & Co., and will have their office in with J. D. Edmundson on Main street.

The jury drawn for the September term of superior court are: George Ferguson, Welles Cook, E. W. Bunham, John Barbyte, M. Keating, H. H. Fields, J. J. White, R. D. Amy, and George Edgar.

A new horse shoeing establishment has been opened by Nash Bros. at 719 Broadway. F. B. Nash was for several years with Charles Gregory and has joined his brother in starting out for themselves.

The Methodists are to have a social next Thursday evening at the residence of Rev. Joseph Knotts, corner of Washington avenue and Scott street. All the friends are invited, and a merry time is anticipated.

The cash receipts of the superior court indicate that despite its high-sounding name, it is in fact a mere police court. From civil cases last month the enormous sum of $7 was received, and from state cases $750.

O. J. King, superintendent of the new government court house and post office expects that the driving of piles for the foundation of the building will begin tomorrow morning. They will be driven by Messrs. Raymond & Campbell.

In the circuit court yesterday a motion was heard in the case of Morris vs. the city of Council Bluffs and the judge took it under advisement and adjournment was taken till this morning, there being no other business on hand.

Rev. Father Mulhill, an assistant of Rev. Father McMenamy, was taken with a congestive chill Saturday night and has grown rapidly worse, until yesterday he lay in an unconscious condition, and there seemed little or no hope of his recovery.

Prof. Paulsen last evening opened his night school in connection with the Western Iowa college. It promises to be a great success, as it affords an opportunity to a great many young men who cannot find time by daylight to gain a business education.

One of the confidence men, named Hale, who has been in jail awaiting trial for doing up a man named Smith in the sum of $285, was yesterday released on bail, $700 cash being put up for his appearance at the next term of the district court. Another of the trio still lies in jail, while the third one, who was discharged, is sauntering about the streets here, as bold as a lion.

E. E. Adams & Co. is the name of the new firm who are preparing to open a boot and shoe store in the rooms lately occupied by Michael Bros. as a jewelry house, No. 417 Broadway. The new store is to be known as the Boston Shoe Store, the gentlemen coming from the Hub, where they had for some time been engaged both in manufacturing and jobbing boots and shoes.

The speedy horses have left the driving park here for other courses. The Missouri Pacific made up a special train here, from the dummy depot, to run to St. Joseph, consisting of ten cars of fast horses, with a passenger coach attached to the rear, for the accommodation of the horsemen. The horses on this train were valued at $125,000. A precious load. Among them was Cal Dalley's fine little mare "Mattie Harlo."

Mayor Vaughan, whose telegrams are sent first to one and then another, has wired the city clerk this time. He states that the attorneys for the Boston brokers have agreed to go to New York with him and get Judge Dillon's opinion on the legality of the bonds, and if the judge says they are all right they will take them. It has been said that Judge Dillon deems the bonds perfectly good, so that there seems to be every reason to consider the bonds as good as sold.

Billy Desmond was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing six dollars and a revolver from the Eastern house. It is claimed that the young man taking advantage of his being well acquainted with those at the house, slipped into one of the rooms and snatched the stuff out of a bureau and then pawned the revolver. The revolver was found at a second-hand place, and after Desmond was arrested the proprietor identified him as the one who sold the weapon. Desmond is said to have borne a good character, and his arrest is a matter of surprise to his friends.

The talk about organizing a militia company here has about died out. A vacancy exists in the state militia, and if Council Bluffs had a "crack" company, one that could capture some prizes in competition drills, and win some honors, the citizens would soon have some pride and enthusiasm in giving support to such an organization. A good military company, while furnishing healthful exercise to the members and pleasant recreation, would be a good card for the city. The trouble seems to be to get just the right kind of men to start it.

The many friends of B. Silloway, proprietor of the Ogden house, and also of the Northwestern hotel at Cedar Rapids, will sympathize with him on learning that he lost a brother by sudden death the other day in Burlington. This brother, Waldo Silloway, entered the office of a hotel in Burlington, and sitting down in a chair fell asleep. It proved to be the sleep of death, for when an attempt was made to rouse him, it was discovered that heart disease or some sudden and fatal trouble had made him its victim. The deceased was employed in the Northwestern at Cedar Rapids.

Harry Hatch, the well-known saloon man, suffered a third stroke of paralysis yesterday morning, and death soon after ensued. Mr. Hatch has been in such ill health for weeks, and has suffered so much from previous strokes, that his death was not unexpected. Mr. Hatch was in business in Chicago at the time of the great fire there, and lost heavily thereby. He soon after came here, and has been engaged in the saloon and restaurant business until ill health compelled him to retire. He leaves a wife, but no children. The funeral will be this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, No. 101 Broadway.

It has been pretty well demonstrated that there are few Council Bluffs people, in proportion to the population, who take enough interest in the races to give the driving park association the patronage which is useful to the success of the enterprise. One of the troubles is that there are not enough local horses in the races to awaken local interest. One need but recall the names of such horses as Jack Perego, Lorene, Little Sioux, and Mattie Harlo to realize that special interest has been taken by many in every race in which any of these horses were entered. Mattie Harlo was the only local horse at this meeting, and more interest was felt in her than all the others put together. If there had been a half dozen more such horses owned in Council Bluffs, much more interest would be felt, and the people would have turned out to the meetings in larger numbers.

DELIGHTING IN DELAY.

The Two Fellows Arrested as Confidence Men Are in No Hurry To Be Tried.

Yesterday the two men giving the names of J. B. Jordan and C. H. Burke, and who were arrested by Detectives Fero and Valentine as confidence men, brought up before Justice Schurz for an examination. Through their attorney they asked for a continuance. Justice Schurz intimated that he would give a continuance provided they would consent to take the evidence of the prosecuting witness, the old German who is now being detained here for that purpose. After that testimony had been taken so that the old man could leave, he would let them have a continuance. They would not agree to this, and finding that Justice Schurz would not do otherwise, they took a change of venue to Justice Abbott. That justice wanted to go over to Omaha yesterday afternoon, and so he put the case down for this morning, when the motion for a continuance will be made.

This mode of procedure is getting to be quite a common trick with confidence men. As long as witnesses are on the ground, ready to testify, they are anxious for delays, thus trying out the witness, but if the witness is not on hand then they are in a hurry to be tried right away.

Ed. Bates, of the police force, had some little talk and talk back with Pete Skinner last evening which caused Bates to pull off his star, give up his club, and quit the force.

The New House.

Congressman Pusey has received the following letter, which is self-explanatory:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE SUPERVISING ARCHITECT,
August 28, 1884.

Hon. W. H. M. Pusey, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Sir: Acknowledging your favor of the 23d instant, I have the honor to advise you that the superintendent has been authorized to do the piling and concrete foundation of the Council Bluffs building by days labor, and that the drawings for stone-work of the basement are completed and the work will be advertised for as soon as specifications can be prepared, which will be in ample season to prevent any delay when the piling and concrete is ready. Very respectfully,
M. E. BELL,
Supervising Architect.

Dissolution Notice.
The firm of Schmidt & Riley has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. C. A. Riley retiring, and H. Schmidt continuing the business. All accounts will be settled by H. Schmidt.
Council Bluffs, Sept 1st.

C. A. RILEY,
H. SCHMIDT.

PERSONAL.

John P. Organ, of Neola, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. C. B. Judd, of the electric belt fame, has gone to Grinnell.

Supervisors From, Rushton, and Kirkwood, were at the Pacific yesterday.

J. B. Blake and E. A. Consigney, of Avea, were in the city yesterday.

George R. Davis started out on the road today, in the interest of De Vol & Wright.

W. C. Kalge and C. L. Kalge have started out on the road, each with four heavy sample cases of Mueller's goods.

Ernest Brock, one of Perego & Moore's best salesmen, is here on a brief stay. He is always welcome here.

A. D. Temple, who was connected with S. W. Ferguson & Co. of this city, is now general manager of the Kansas Life Association, of Kansas City.

Fred R. Davis, who has been with Shugart, Walte & Weis, for a year past as book-keeper, and who was previously the treasurer of the Shugart Implement Co., has severed his connection with the house, and will engage in other business.

Dr. Finney yesterday received a telegram from his cousin, Congressman Horr, of Michigan, stating that the latter's oldest daughter was very ill, and asking him to come to Saginaw at once. The doctor made all arrangements to go last night.

John Nicholson, who is now located at the stock yards in Omaha, was over on this side shaking hands with his many friends. He seems well satisfied with his prospects in his new location, and has already been offered for his property an advance on what he paid.

Charles and Henry Paschel, sons of the old and respected citizen, Henry Paschel, leave today for South Bend, Ind., to resume their course of study at Notre Dame University. They won honors last year, and will doubtless maintain their high rank in their classes this year also.

Col. Swan has returned from his eastern trip having been gone about two months, visiting relatives in Ohio, Indiana, and other places. He visited one brother and other relatives whom he had not seen before for thirty or forty years. He not only had a happy trip, but gained in health, also.

T. S. Stevens, of the Chicago & Rock Island, returned yesterday from his western trip. When he started he intended going to California, but at Ogden his friends got him to switch off and take in some of the wild scenery of Idaho. He also visited Cheyenne, Salt Lake, and other points, and returned to his arduous duties here, refreshed and rested.

The city council could get no quorum last evening and adjourned until tonight.

That Wait.

C. M. Brookings, of Tokamah, Neb., called at The Bee office yesterday in company with C. F. Adams. Mr. Brookings is the father of the young man who got into so much trouble by leaving a babe on the door step of Mr. Jennings' residence. Mr. Brookings has acquaintances in this city, among them ex-Mayor Bowman, who cheerfully bear testimony to his high standing and respectability, and he has hastened here to see that his daughter's reputation is not injured by any unjust suspicions. Those who are conversant with the facts have been convinced that the girl is not the mother of the child, and the fact that she so readily acknowledged all the details as to what she did with the child, and so freely told who she was and where she belonged, naturally strengthens the belief that the babe was left with her by a woman on the train, who did not come back after it, and that in her frantic attempt to get out of the predicament she disposed of the child by leaving it at the Jennings residence. The young woman as well as the family seems to have borne a good reputation, and Mr. Brookings says the unpleasant notoriety caused by the sensational event comes as heavy as a death in the household. Admitting the young woman's story to be true, and that she was imposed upon herself, it was a terrible mistake on her part when she sought to get out of the scrape by practicing the same kind of imposture on some one else, and the trouble caused her should serve as a warning to others to aequally lustily to anybody and everybody, when a baby is left on their hands, instead of trying to slip out on the sly. Mr. Adams also has had an interest in having Mr. Brookings visit the city, as his connection with the case as prosecuting attorney has been unfavorably commented on, and he is desirous that the public should understand that he had good reasons for not prosecuting the case further, and that instead of urging the young woman to leave the city he urged her to stay longer, and that he then telegraphed her father to come here in order that all the facts might be got at, and shown up fully.
